

ACTIVITY 2

Be Kind and Wise Online

In Into the Cloud, Nettie and Webster accidentally get lost in a place called Badromeda. As they try to find their way home, they teach others about being kind and wise online.

Part 1

Just like it's important to use good manners in real life, you should use good manners online. Read the sentences below. Color the box next to good behaviors green. Color the box next to behaviors that are not kind red.

- 1. Sending a funny emoji to a friend.
- 2. Calling a friend bad names while playing a game online.
- 3. Helping a friend learn to use a new app.
- 4. Posting an embarrassing photo of a friend.

Part 2

Join Nettie and Webster as they practice being kind and wise online. Fill in the box next to the best answer.

- 1. You get a photo from someone you don't know. That person wants you to send back a photo of yourself. What would you do?
 - A. Send a photo.
 - B. Ignore the message.
 - C. Don't send the photo and tell a trusted adult.
- 2. Someone is sending your friend mean texts. What would you do?
 - A. Tell your friend to send back a rude message.
 - B. Tell a trusted adult.
 - C. Tell your friend to delete the message.
- 3. A friend sends you a video with lots of bad words. What would you do?
 - A. Send the video to another friend.
 - B. Tell a trusted adult.
 - C. Delete the video and don't tell anyone.

NetSmartz® Safety Tip for Adults: Have a family conversation about proper online etiquette (or netiquette) and how to tell a trusted adult if your child feels something is scary, confusing, or upsetting. For more information and to view Into the Cloud, go to NetSmartzKids.org.

A program of the

