WORD BANK

Niagara Falls Sleepy Hollow Las Vegas Death Valley Grand Canyon Cities of the Dead

- Clue: This colorful, enormous national park has been carved out over millions of years. Located in the southwest, it is deep enough to fit 19 Statues of Liberty stacked on top of each other.

- Clue: More than 41 million people visit this high-energy city each year. Located in Nevada's Mojave Desert, it is home to many of the country's tallest hotels. Its millions of lights make it the brightest spot on Earth.

- Clue: This natural wonder sits on the border between the United States and Canada. Visitors can ride an elevator down 175 feet into a gorge to experience its roaring, tropical storm-like conditions up-close from an observation deck.

- Clue: Halloween-lovers flock to this village, located 25 miles north of New York City. It's filled with gothic mansions and super-old cemeteries and is the famous setting for a ghostly tale featuring the Headless Horseman.

- Clue: This crumbling final resting place in New Orleans features above-ground burial vaults stacked on top of one another. Established in 1789, it is the oldest cemetery in the city and is known for being the most haunted.

- Clue: This desert and national park is the hottest place on Earth. Summer temperatures often top 120 degrees Fahrenheit! The landscape features a massive crater over 600 feet deep and half a mile wide.
