

Dear Educator,
The Weinstein Company and award-winning curriculum specialists Young Minds Inspired (YMI) have cooked up a perfect recipe for fun moviegoing and language arts excitement with this free educational program based on the new film Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil, coming to theaters on April 29. Families can join in the fun as well by uploading their favorite kid-friendly treat recipe for a chance to win an iPad 2 or a Hoodwinked Prize Pack! (Visit www.hoodwinkedtoomovie.com for details.)

This animated 3-D family film gives comical, inventive twists to classic fairy-tale characters and themes, as Little Red and the rest of the gang from Hoodwinked take on the case of two missing fairy-tale favorites while racing to recover a super-secret recipe that packs super powers into a chocolate truffle. Your students can join in this fairy-tale fun with the program's easy-to-implement classroom activities, and can share the fun with a take-home activity that invites families to create their own fairy-tale recipe. The activities are designed for use without having seen the film.

Please share this kit with other teachers in grades 1 through 6. Although these materials are protected by copyright, you may make as many copies as you need. ## HOW TO USE THIS PROGRAM

Display the poster in a prominent location and introduce the film's characters by reading aloud the story of Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil provided below. Distribute copies of Activity 1 and 2 to each child for completion in class. Distribute copies of Activity 3 for students to complete with their parents at home.

THE STORY OF HOODWINKED TOO! HOOD VS EVIL

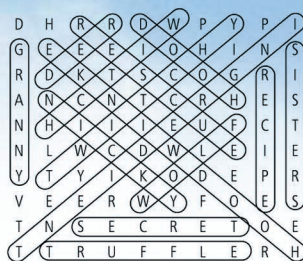

The good...the bad...the Twitchy. From the team that brought you Hoodwinked, the hilarious re-telling of the classic Little Red Riding Hood fable, comes the side-splitting follow-up—Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. The sequel catches up with our heroine, Little Red, training with a covert group called the Sisters of the Hood. Finishing her training, Little Red is sent out on her first mission by the returning Nicky Flippers—head of the Happily Ever After Agency—to investigate the disappearance of two famous fairy-tale characters. Of course, what is a sequel without guest stars from the original? Thankfully, Granny and the rest of the Hoodwinked gang, including the intrepid reporter, the Wolf, also return to help solve the forest's latest caper. Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil is a rollicking, clever, comic roller coaster that promises to combine edge-of-the-seat adventure with classic zany cartoon antics.

ACTIVITY 1: AGENT IN TRAINING

(Time Required: Approximately 30 minutes)

Part A. Have students solve the word search puzzle individually, then fill in the letters to solve the riddle as a class. For younger students, read each word aloud and provide guidance as they work through the word search puzzle.

Answers

Answer to riddle: Happily Ever After

Part B. Ask students to explain the clue (or define the word sequel if they need help), then crack the code as a class to discover that the missing ingredient needed is teamwork.

Follow-up Activity: It takes teamwork to solve all the mysteries in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. Have your students team up to continue their special agent training by creating their own word puzzles and riddles. They can follow the examples on the activity sheet or follow the example of games like Hangman or Wheel of Fortune. Use your students' puzzles for an in-class tournament, letting one team challenge the others to see who is ready to join Little Red on her next mission.

ACTIVITY 2: H.E.A.'S NEXT MISSION

(Time Required: Approximately 30 minutes)

Read the movie synopsis and then the activity sheet together with students, and have students refer to the poster. The attributes in the chart are in random order—students can mix them any way they want. For younger grades, consider doing the activity together as a class, and then having students work independently or in pairs to plan their own fairy tales. You can also partner with a 5th- or 6th-grade class to have the older students write stories with the younger students. Students can illustrate and share their fairy tales when they are done.

Follow-up Activity: Talk about the super-secret chocolate truffle recipe featured in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. Ask students what super powers they imagine might be cooked into that tasty treat. Then have students come up with their own ideas for a super-power-packed treat—a cake, a pie, a cookie, a candy, or even a delicious drink. As a class, brainstorm fairy-tale-style names for the treats your students imagine and improvise your own original fairy tales about how each treat was invented or how it saved the day.

ACTIVITY 3: COOKING UP FUN AT HOME

Copy this page for your students to take home. Remind them that they must cook only with a grown-up.

Follow-up Activity: Ask students to bring in their family "super treat" recipes to create a "Fantastic Fairy-Tale Foods" cookbook. Have students each create a page for the cookbook, including their family recipe and an illustration showing its super power in action. Students can draw a character from Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil sampling their family's treat, or show themselves and members of their family powered up by the treat. Scan or copy the pages to provide every family with a copy of the class cookbook.

Activity 1

Agent in Training

Part A. In Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil, Little Red trains with a secret group called the Sisters of the Hood as she prepares for a mission with other members of the Happily Ever After Agency to locate two famous fairy-tale characters who have disappeared. Along the way, she learns that a super-secret chocolate truffle recipe is missing, too!

Little Red needs all her special agent skills to solve these mysteries. And you can help. Pretend that you are a Happily Ever After (H.E.A.) agent in training. Put your skills to work to answer this riddle:

An H.E.A. agent and a fairy tale both share a common goal. What three words do you hear when that goal is accomplished?

To discover the answer, first find the words listed below in the word search puzzle. Circle each word that you find.

GRANNY HOOD HOODWINKED INGREDIENT
NICKY RECIPE RED RESCUE SECRET SISTERS
TRUFFLE TWITCHY WITCH WOLF

D	H	R	R	D	W	P	Y	P	I
G	E	E	E	I	O	H	I	N	S
R	D	K	T	S	C	O	G	R	I
A	N	C	N	T	C	R	H	E	S
N	H	I	I	I	E	U	F	C	T

V	E	E	R	W	Y	F	O	E	S
T	T	R	U	F	F	L	E	R	H

Now look in the puzzle for letters that you did NOT circle. If you found all the words, there should be 14 letters outside of any circle. Use these letters to fill in the blanks below and spell out the answer to the riddle! (We've given you two letters to get you started.)

Answer:

___ A ___ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ A ___ _ _ _ _ _

Part B. Ready for another challenge? Crack the code below to find out what secret ingredient Red and Wolf realize that they need in order to successfully solve their cases in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. Here's a hint to get you started—What's the sequel to the letter "T" in the alphabet?

H.E.A.'s Next Mission

In Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil, Little Red and her mission partners search for a recipe that has a secret ingredient with special powers. Writing a fairy tale can be like following a recipe, too. First you need the ingredients. Then you put them together to create a yummy treat or—in this case—a story that you will write about the next mission for Red and the H.E.A. agents.

Create a “recipe” for your story by first selecting an agent to be the main character in your story: Red, Granny, Wolf, or Twitchy. Then choose the main “ingredients” or mission details by circling one item from each column in the chart at right. There’s no order, so mix them up any way you want. You can also add your own ideas.

My Mission for Special Agent

Mission Ingredients

Agent's Specialty	Mission Partner	Transportation	Villain	Setting	Case to Solve/Subject Matter
Kung fu	Red	Broom	A witch	A tall castle	Rescue someone
Cooking	Wolf	Motorcycle	A troll	A city	Recover stolen item
Creating disguises	Granny	Van	An animal	A forest	Prevent crime
Singing	Twitchy	Helicopter	A child	A park	Find missing person
Strength	Nicky	Skateboard	A giant	A school	Solve a riddle
Other: ____	Other: ____	Other: ____	Other: ____	Other: ____	Other: ____

Mixing the Ingredients

Now fill in your ideas below about how to mix together the “ingredients” for your fairy tale. Remember the fairy-tale motto: happily ever after. Then write your fairy tale on a separate piece of paper.

Activity 3

Cooking Up Fun at Home

In Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil, when a 1,000-year-old recipe for Super Truffles is stolen, it's up to Little Red and the agents from the Happily Ever After (H.E.A.) Agency to recover the recipe before the world's villains can learn its secret ingredient and use its super powers for evil.

Do you have a super-powered recipe in your family? Well, here's an opportunity to create one, right in your own kitchen—and enter for a chance to win an iPad 2 or a Hoodwinked Prize Pack! You could make truffles, brownies, cookies, cereal treats, trail mix, fruit kebobs—anything tasty. If you don't already have a family recipe, try putting your own decorative touch on a festive ice cream cone cake for your next family celebration. Whatever you decide, add your own secret ingredient to make it super. Have fun deciding what special power that ingredient might add—could it be red sprinkles that hold the key to being super smart?

Fairy-Tale Favorites

Here's another ingredient for family fun. While you're cooking or having dinner, turn your fairy-tale favorites into a trivia game. For example:

- How many fairy tales can you think of that have a wolf in them? a witch? a bed?
- How many fairy-tale animals can you name?
- Which fairy-tale heroine is really "the fairest of all"?

And for more fun—and to enter your recipe for a chance to win an iPad 2 or a Hoodwinked Prize Pack—check out the Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil website at www.hoodwinkedtoomovie.com, where you can also download more recipes and meet Red and her crew. After you visit, try to answer these questions:

- Who must the H.E.A. agents rescue?
- Who is Red's partner on this mission?
- Which fairy tale does Nicky Flippers come from?

Secret Ingredient Possibilities

- miniature marshmallows
- peanut butter chips
- dried fruit like banana chips, blueberries, or cherries
- butterscotch chips
- candy sprinkles
- shredded coconut
- chocolate chips
