HOW TO USE THIS PROGRAM

Review the program materials and schedule the activities into your class plans. Display the poster in a prominent location. Distribute copies of Activity 3 for students to complete with their parents at home.

THE STORY OF HOODWINKED TOO! HOOD VS EVIL

The good...the bad...the Twitchy. From the team that brought you Hoodwinked, the hilarious re-telling of the classic Little Red Riding Hood fable, comes the side-splitting follow-up, Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. The sequel finds our heroine, Red, training with a mysterious covert group called the Sisters of the Hood. But Red is forced to cut her training short when she gets an urgent call from Nicky Flippers, the head of the super secret Happily Ever After Agency, to investigate the disappearance of two famous fairy-tale characters. Nicky needs the whole Hoodwinked gang—Red, Granny, the ever-clueless Wolf, and his over-caffeinated little partner, Twitchy—for the search and rescue mission.

ACTIVITY 1: AGENT IN TRAINING

(Time Required: Approximately 30 minutes)

For Part A, have students solve the word search puzzle individually, then fill in the words to complete the story as a class. For younger students, read each word aloud and provide guidance as they work through the puzzle and the story.

For Part B, bring a mirror to class so that students can take turns seeing the word "teamwork." Then prompt students to understand how tasks such as finding something that's missing are made easier when people work together as a team, like the team of special agents in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil.

Follow-up Activity: It takes teamwork to solve all the mysteries in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. Have your students team up to continue their special agent training by creating their own word puzzles and riddles. Use your students' puzzles for an in-class tournament, letting one team challenge the others to see who is ready to join Little Red on her next mission.

ACTIVITY 2: OUR NEXT MISSION

(Time Required: Approximately 30 minutes)

Read the DVD synopsis and then the activity sheet aloud. Have younger students use a separate sheet of paper for their pictures and drawing. Identify the fairy-tale characters shown as "story helpers" for students who may not know them (the fairy godmother from Cinderella, Little Bo Peep, Goldilocks, the Three Little Pigs, Little Boy Blue, Mother Goose, and Jack from Jack and the Beanstalk). Younger students can take turns describing what their team of characters is looking for and why. Older students can write their answers and then share them aloud with the rest of the class. As an extension, ask students to share aloud with the class the name of their favorite fairy-tale character and an idea for an adventure that could be part of their own fairy tale.

Follow-up Activity: Tell students that there is something secret in the recipe featured in Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil. Ask students what super powers they imagine might be cooked into that tasty treat. Then have students come up with their own ideas for a super-power-packed treat—a cake, a pie, a cookie, a candy, or even a delicious drink. As a class, brainstorm fairy-tale-style names for the treats your students imagine and improvise your own original fairy tales about how each treat was invented or how it saved the day.

ACTIVITY 3: COOKING UP FUN AT HOME

Copy this page for your students to take home. Remind them that they must cook only with a grown-up.

Follow-up Activity: Ask students to bring in their family "super treat" recipes to create a "Fantastic Fairy-Tale Foods" cookbook. Have students each create a page for the cookbook, including their family recipe and an illustration showing its super power in action. Students can draw a character from Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil sampling their family's treat, or show themselves and members of their family powered up by the treat. Scan or copy the pages to provide every family with a copy of the class cookbook.

Our Next Mission

Writing a fairy tale is like making a recipe. Recipes have things like sugar and flour that make a food yummy. Fairy tales have characters that make a story fun. The DVD of Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil has characters with names from fairy tales you may know, like Red and Wolf.

Create a "recipe" for your own fairy tale. First choose one of the secret agents shown below. Then choose a teammate for that agent from one of the story helpers. Then decide what special thing or place you want your fairy-tale team to look for and why they need to find it.

Activity 3

Cooking Up Fun at Home

The DVD of Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil tells a story about finding a recipe that has something in it with special powers.

Do you have a super-powered recipe in your family? Take this sheet home and ask your parents if they know a special recipe that everyone in the family likes. It could be truffles, brownies, cookies, cereal treats, trail mix, something with fruit—anything tasty. Or it could be a yummy ice cream cone cup cake! What could you and your family add to it to make your recipe really super?

How about one of these?

- miniature marshmallows
- dried fruit like banana chips, blueberries, or cherries
- candy sprinkles
- chocolate chips
- peanut butter chips
- butterscotch chips
- shredded coconut

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your child has been having fun with fairy tales, like the fun in the story of Hoodwinked Too! Hood vs Evil, which will be available on DVD and Blu-ray Combo Pack on August 16.

Have some family cooking fun by making a special recipe super, adding a secret ingredient such as those listed above, to a family favorite.

Fairy-Tale Favorites

Here's another ingredient for family fun. While you're cooking or having dinner, turn your fairy-tale favorites into a trivia game. For example:

- How many fairy tales can you think of that have a wolf in them? a witch? a bed?
- How many fairy-tale animals can you name?
- Which fairy-tale heroine is really "the fairest of all"?

For more fun, check out the Hoodwinked Too! website at www.hoodwinkedtoomovie.com, where you can also download more recipes and meet Red and her crew. After you visit, try to answer these questions:

- Who must the H.E.A. agents rescue?
- Who is Red's partner on this mission?
- Which fairy tale does Nicky Flippers come from?
