

THE FLOOD IS COMING

On March 28, 2014, Noah, the epic film inspired by the Biblical story of courage, sacrifice, and hope, will challenge moviegoers to think how aspects of classic stories are replayed in our daily lives. With Russell Crowe as Noah, visionary filmmaker Darren Aronofsky (Black Swan) brings to life this epic tale and the lessons we can learn from it in a uniquely powerful manner.

PART 1. In order to tell a Bible story in a narrative format, a succinct plot structure has to drive the story. Read the story of Noah in the Bible and select 5 significant events in its story arc. Describe them below.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____

Then, using a template like the one below, map out the story of Noah on the back of this sheet, placing the 5 events you selected at the appropriate places on the map.

- What did you learn about God, humanity, or both?
- 1 _____
 - 2 _____
 - 3 _____

PART 2. After viewing Noah, describe three aspects of the film that differ from your reading of the story.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____

In class, discuss why you think the filmmakers added these additional elements to the Bible story.

THE FLOOD IS COMING. SEE NOAH IN THEATERS MARCH 28, 2014
www.noahmovie.com

If you are interested in booking a private group screening, please call 1-877-GRP-7878 or visit www.noahmovie.com/groupsales for additional details.

© 2014 PARAMOUNT PICTURES. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.