

MANH(A)TTAN

HOW MUCH EVIL DOES IT TAKE TO DO GOOD?

SEASON 2 PREMIERES ON WGN AMERICA TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 9PM/8C

Entrance to Los Alamos.

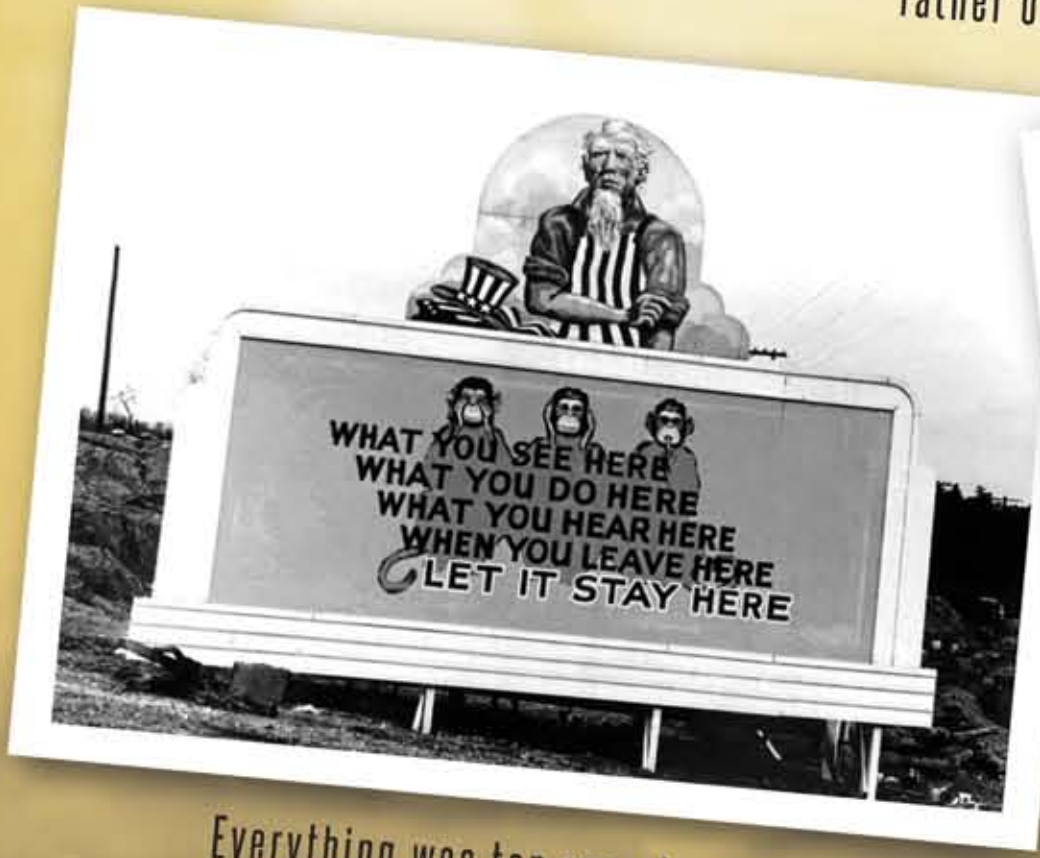

J. Robert Oppenheimer, called the "father of the atomic bomb."

Housing for the workers at Los Alamos, New Mexico.

Everyone involved in The Manhattan Project was subjected to lie detector tests.

Everything was top secret – no one could talk about what they saw or did.

The Manhattan Project team assembling the first atomic bomb at the Trinity test site.

The Trinity Test – first detonation of an atomic bomb, July 16, 1945.

