

Buddy meets many people in New York City. Some are friendly. Some are not. But Buddy always remembers Rule Two of the Elf Code: “There is room for everyone on the Nice List.” No matter what happens, Buddy sees the best in people. He knows that being nice is the best way to help others be nice to you.

My Nice List

Name	Gift of Niceness

Part 1 Who are the people on your Nice List? Write their names in the chart. Then think of something nice you can do for each person on your list. For example, you could give a parent a hug, or play a game with a friend. Describe a “gift of niceness” for each person on your list.

Part 2 Now get a head start on the holidays by giving someone on your list a real gift of niceness. Use this special gift certificate to show that person you think he or she is nice.

You're On My Nice List!

To: _____

This certificate entitles you to _____

Signed: _____

elf

Activity 3 Who's on Your Nice List?