

An Invitation!

Dr. Seuss loved to use his imagination. Now, it's your turn. Plan a costume party for your favorite Dr. Seuss characters. Your class can celebrate with a real costume party. Or imagine a pretend party. Answer the questions below to get started.

Part 1. Plan Your Party

1. Who or what do you want to dress up as?

_____

2. Why did you choose this character?

_____

Part 2. Design the Invitation

Cut out the invitation, paste it on construction paper, and decorate it!

It's a Dr. Seuss Party!

We're hosting a party, _____ is the date.

Please come at _____ and help us celebrate!

Wear Dr. Seuss character costumes for extra fun.

There will be yummy food and surprises by the ton!

_____ is where the party will be.

It will be a great time, just you wait and see.

Would you, could you come join us on this day?

I hope so. Please let me know either way.

RSVP to: _____

Phone or E-mail: _____

Celebrate Dr. Seuss's Birthday!

Hi, parents and caregivers! Help your child decide which Dr. Seuss character they want to celebrate and plan their costume. Then also have a family party and read together on March 2, Dr. Seuss's birthday!

To mark Dr. Seuss's special day, you can participate in the Dr. Seuss Word Challenge by submitting the number of Dr. Seuss books your child has read to DrSeussChallenge.com.** Enter the sweepstakes every day during Dr. Seuss's Birthday Week, March 2-6, for the chance to win super-dee-doooper prizes, as well as a grand prize for your school or library.

* Teachers: This activity complements "Celebrate favorite characters, pets, or people with a costume party!" in the Dr. Seuss's Birthday 2020 Classroom Activity Guide.

** NO PURCHASE NECESSARY. Daily prizes and entry between March 2, 2020 and March 6, 2020. Open to US residents, 18 and older. Void where prohibited or restricted by law. See Official Rules at DrSeussChallenge.com/rules for full details.
