

Dr. Seuss's World of Words

PART 1: Think of silly words, anything will do. Then make them rhyme for me and you! Read the Dr. Seuss nonsense words below. Then make new words that rhyme with them! Your words can be real words or nonsense words, just like Dr. Seuss! Then show off some of your words by using them in a silly sentence on a separate sheet of paper, and draw a picture to illustrate your sentence.

Blibber-blubber

wump

tweetle

fiffer-feffer-feff

tuttle-tuttle

yop

PART 2: Create a birthday invitation. Cut out the copy below, paste it on separate paper and decorate it.

Don't sit in the house
with nothing to do, Celebrate Dr. Seuss Day on March, number 2!

To: All Families

From: Dr. Seuss and Hats Off to Reading

What: A celebration of Dr. Seuss books

When: March 2, 2021

Where: Your house!

Hello Parents & Caregivers,

- Hats Off to Reading invites you to celebrate the imaginative characters and themes of Dr. Seuss's books and reinforce your child's literacy skills. In addition to reading Dr. Seuss books together at home, try some of these ideas!
- 1. Prepare and enjoy Dr. Seuss-inspired treats with your child. Eat these snacks while reading! You might try fish-shaped crackers for One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish, or Cat in the Hat fruit kabobs made of strawberries and bananas with a grape or marshmallow face.
- 2. Check with your local library to find out about any special events they are hosting for Hats Off to Reading.
- 3. Dress the family in their most colorful clothing in a nod to Dr. Seuss's colorful and imaginative characters.
