

An Element City Adventure

In Disney and Pixar's Elemental, the elements use the "Wetro" (train) to travel through Element City. It's one place where they can meet and get to know each other.

Meet Ember. She lives in Element City, and today she has errands to do. Help her use the Wetro to complete all her errands.

Solve the clues to figure out where Ember needs to go. Use the word box.

Areas of Element City

Fire Town Garden District Water District Air District

Stop 1

Ember wants to start a garden. She has seeds and a planter box. She needs something to plant the seeds in. What part of town should she go to for this errand?

Stop 2

Ember's friend is feeling a bit sad. She wants to find something to blow the blues away. What part of town should she go to for this errand?

Stop 3

Ember remembers she needs one more thing for her plants. Plants get thirsty! What part of town should she go to for this errand?

Stop 4

Ember is ready to go home and plant her seeds. She jumps on the Wetro to her home. Where is she headed? (Hint: Think about her name.)

Families:

Journey to Element City and discover how the "Wetro" works. Does your town have its own version of the "Wetro"? See Disney and Pixar's Elemental only in theaters June 16.